County Conference at Congregational Church Attended By 150—Welcome By Rev. T. Edward Davies, the Pastor—Agricultural Club to Meet—New School Supervisor.

Most of you somewhere have confessed the Lord Jesus Christ; think of His disappointment if in all these years when He has given life, health and abundant opportunity, you choose to be a hard body. This was the theme of the pastor Sunday morning, based on John 15:2.

County Conference Will Attend.

Tuesday was dark, damp, and dismal in spite of this, the annual meeting of the Windham Association of Congregational Churches and Ministers was held in the afternoon.

A solo by H. Lyman, preceded the opening prayer of the afternoon session. Rev. F. C. Thompson of New Britain was forced by a sore throat to speak briefly on our Plans. He was followed by Rev. W. S. Reed, formerly of Willamantic, now a secretary of the Home Missionary society.

After a duet by Mrs. Rollinson and Mr. Lyman, Rev. S. H. Howe, D. D. of Norwich gave a deeply earnest address on The War's Terrible Revelation of the World's Need of a Christ Who
